

THE FREEBIRD COSMIC PEP-TALK

Short, Powerful, Easy to Schedule
Get a Boost for Your Spirits

WHAT IT IS

A LOOK AT YOUR CHART

I'll check in on where the planets are now and what's being activated in your chart by the current astrological weather. I'll share ideas for how to navigate the pressure points and keep moving through the rough spots.

A SHORT TAROT/ORACLE PULL

A small, focused pull for a little intuitive insight. This can highlight what you might be missing or just provide some confirmation about what's showing up.

A MESSAGE WITH SOME IDEAS

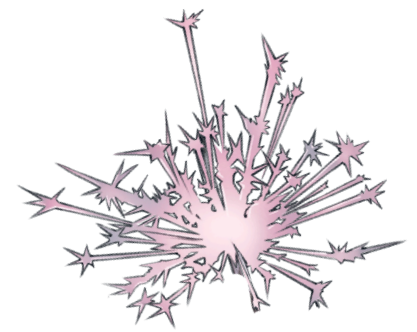

I'll send you a quick message with a few practical ideas or strategies based on what's showing up in your chart and the themes from the card pull. These can be used to layer in with your own intuitive knowing.

SOME BACK & FORTH MESSAGES IF NEEDED

If you need a little more context, we can go back and forth a bit to get you sorted. This isn't a full-on deep dive, but I won't leave you hanging if you need a little extra clarity. (I've found this kind of back-and-forth with my Soulsmart coach and astrology bestie to be super helpful in a short amount of time!)

WHO IT IS FOR

YOU ARE IN IT AND YOU KNOW IT

You're in the thick of it and just need someone to acknowledge that – maybe offer a bit of perspective or ideas you haven't considered yet.

A QUICK RECALIBRATION

You're showing up for yourself, and it's possible that you need a tweak on your perspective. This might mean getting real about how yucky this is OR it might mean, let's notice what's working well. (Sometimes both)

YOU LOVE A LITTLE PEP TALK

Sometimes you need someone to sit in the dark with you, and sometimes you just need a reminder that the light will come again and that YES – you can do this.

CONFIRMATION

When it gets really hard, it's easy to think you're not doing enough. Sometimes you aren't, but usually you're just in the messy middle. Sometimes it helps to hear that YES – this is hard, and YES – you can keep going, and YES – you are doing ENOUGH.

HOW IT WORKS

YOU LET ME KNOW YOU WANT A PEP TALK

Voxer message, an email or even a text message will work. I'll send you a payment link and we'll get started.

NEXT- YOU'LL VOXER me WHAT'S GOING ON

Voxer is a free app (more on that later in this brochure). It's an easy way to leave a voice message and talk it out.

Once you sign up, we'll set a time for me to sit with your chart and pull a few cards. After I listen to your message, I'll send you some ideas. We can go back and forth a bit if needed, including a follow-up card if the first round needs more clarity.

THE GOAL

This is a snapshot of where you are right now, with a few practical steps to keep you moving. You'll get focused support based on what's happening in your chart and the themes that come up in the card pull.

I might also include a mini chart reading if it feels relevant – a bite-sized look at some key placements to help you understand your unique wiring and how it might be influencing your current experiences. These mini readings are a great way to get a taste of what a full chart reading can reveal, but they're not a replacement for a deep dive into your full natal chart.

ANGELA FREEBIRD HERE

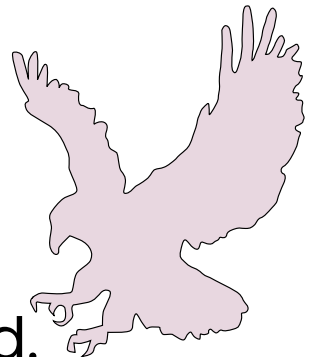

Real change is hard.

It's not a straight line, and it's not always clear. It's more spiralic – a messy, looping, sometimes frustrating process where you revisit the same lessons in new ways.

I've been through more than my share of spiralic journeys. I've come to rely on my chart as a field guide – a way to navigate the messy middles and remind myself that even the most confusing moments eventually shift into something more clear.

A little support can make a big difference – that's what my Freebird Cosmic Pep Talk is for – a way to get your bearings when you just need a bit of perspective or confirmation that you're still on your path, even if it feels like the long way around.

F. A. Q.

How long will it take to get my response?

Once you reach out to book, I'll let you know when I can sit with your chart and pull some cards – usually within 24-48 hours, not counting weekends.

From there, you can leave your message whenever you're ready on Voxer (or email, if that's more your speed), and you'll be in the queue.

What if I have follow-up questions?

That's part of the deal. If something isn't clear or you just need a bit more context, we can go back and forth a bit. This isn't a full deep dive, but I won't leave you hanging if you need a little extra support.

Do I need to know anything about astrology? (or tarot)

Nope. You don't need to have any relationship with astrology or tarot for this to be helpful. I'll do the chart checking and tarot pulling, and I'll keep the messages clear and easy to understand – no jargon or astrology-speak required.

What if I want (or need) a deeper dive?

This is a short check-in, not a full deep dive, but if you're ready to go deeper into your chart and get a more comprehensive perspective, I offer full readings and other longer sessions. Just reach out, and I'll help you figure out the best next step.

Can I gift a Sess to a friend?

Absolutely! Just reach out, and I'll create a gift certificate so you can share a little support with someone who needs it.

I have another question...

My email is Angela@angelafreebird.com. OR you can find me on Voxer (see next page) and send me a message.

The Magic of Voxer

Voxer is a free-to-use voice- messaging app.

It's like using the voice message feature on Facebook Messenger or Whatsapp.

HERE'S WHY I LOVE USING VOXER TO SUPPORT MY CLIENTS:

Time to Think, Space to Breathe

Voxer gives us a way to stay connected between live sessions, without the pressure of a scheduled call. You can share what's coming up when it's fresh, and I'll respond when I've had time to reflect with messages you can replay anytime.

Freedom to Move

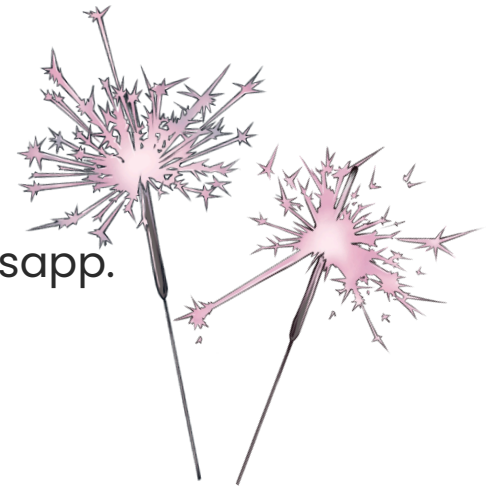

Easy to connect on the go and no need for a screen. You can check in from the trail, the kitchen, or in my case, the truck camper.

The Replay

You can replay messages anytime – perfect if you get interrupted, miss a detail, or just need to hear it again.

The App is FREE
